

WESTROCK EUROPE

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE – CONSUMER (CZECH REPUBLIC)

1 Definitions

“Conditions” means these terms and conditions of sale and “term” or “condition” means any one of them;

“Contract” means an agreement between the Seller and the Customer for the sale and purchase of Goods and/or Services in accordance with these Conditions (and may include an accepted Order);

“Customer” means the person(s) acting as an independent entrepreneur(s), firm, corporate or unincorporated body who purchases any Goods and/or Services from the Seller;

“Deliverables” means deliverables that the Seller is to provide to the Customer in connection with the Services as set out in and pursuant to an Order for the provision of Services (including without limitation technical documents, drawings, plans, proofs and samples);

“Goods” means the goods (including any instalment of the goods or any part of them) that the Seller is to supply in accordance with these Conditions;

“Order” means the Customer’s purchase order for Goods and/or Services;

“Seller” means the company from whom the Customer purchases Goods and/or Services;

“Services” means the services that the Seller is to provide in accordance with these Conditions;

“Specification” means the description and/or specification of the Goods and/or Services, as agreed between the Seller and the Customer.

In these Conditions, any phrase introduced by the term “include” or “including”, or similar expression, will be construed as illustrative and will not limit the sense of the words preceding that term.

2 Application of these Conditions

Unless specifically varied in writing between the Seller and the Customer, these Conditions apply to the Contract to the exclusion of all other terms and conditions (including any terms or conditions which the Customer purports to apply that are contained or referred to in any purchase order, confirmation of order, other correspondence or documentation, or any inconsistent terms or conditions which may be implied by law, trade custom, practice or course of dealing, unless to the extent they cannot be excluded under mandatory law).

As used herein, “Goods” shall include equipment sold by the Seller to the Customer; provided, however, that equipment sales shall be subject to such different warranties, remedies and other terms and conditions of sale (“additional terms”) to the extent any additional terms are expressly set forth in writing by the Seller, and which additional terms shall govern in the event of a conflict between such additional terms and these Conditions.

3 Order

3.1 Each Order shall be deemed to be an offer from the Customer to purchase the Goods or Services specified in the Order, subject to these Conditions. The Customer is responsible for ensuring that the Order is complete and accurate. No Order shall be deemed to have been accepted by the Seller until the Seller (i) confirms the acceptance of such Order in writing or by other means agreed with the Customer, or (ii) delivers the Goods or provides the Services and/or any Deliverables to the Customer (if earlier), at which point the Contract shall come into existence.

3.2 Any quotation given by the Seller (unless previously withdrawn) is given as valid for 30 days only from issue and is given on the basis that no Contract shall come into existence except in accordance with condition 3.1 or as otherwise agreed in writing between the Seller and the Customer.

3.3 The Seller shall not be bound by and reserves the right to correct, before and after the Contract is made, any obvious error or omission in any sales literature, quotation, invoice or acceptance of offer issued by the Seller.

4 Price

4.1 The price of the Goods and/or Services shall be as set out in the Order or as otherwise agreed in writing between the Seller and the Customer. All prices for the Goods and/or Services quoted or accepted are, unless specifically stated, exclusive of VAT, other sales tax and the costs referred to in condition 4.2 below.

4.2 Unless otherwise agreed in writing between the Seller and the Customer, the Seller may additionally charge for the costs of loading, unloading, carriage, insurance and any specialised or additional packaging in respect of the Goods or any Deliverables.

5 Payment

5.1 Payment for the Goods and/or Services shall be made in net cleared funds (without deduction, set-off, counterclaim or any other deduction) within 30 days of issue of the invoice, and in the currency indicated on the invoice. Invoices will be issued generally on despatch of the Goods or alternatively when the Goods are available for collection or, in relation to Services, as agreed between the parties.

5.2 Time for payment shall be of the essence.

5.3 If the Customer fails to pay the Seller any sums due in respect of the Goods or Services by the due date for payment (without prejudice to the Seller's other rights and remedies):

(a) the Customer will be liable to pay interest to the Seller on the sums due from the due date for payment, until payment is actually made whether before or after judgment at the annual rate of 3% over the base rate of ING Bank N.V. (or such other clearing bank as may be used by the Customer from time to time), accruing daily; and

(b) the Seller will be entitled to withhold or cancel subsequent performance of the Seller's obligations under the Contract, or any other deliveries to or performance of Services for the Customer, and/or require the Customer to pay for the Goods prior to their despatch or collection or for Services prior to their performance.

5.4 In case of a Contract involving more than one delivery or performance instalment, if default is made in respect of payment on the due date for any one instalment, the Seller shall be entitled to treat the whole Contract as repudiated by the Customer and (without prejudice to the Seller's other rights and remedies) claim damages accordingly.

6 Description of the Goods and Services

6.1 The Seller warrants that the Goods and Services will be produced to the Specification.

- 6.2 All other drawings, descriptive matter, materials, samples and advertising issued by the Seller are issued for the sole purpose of giving an approximate idea of the Goods and/or to be produced, and the Seller shall have no liability in respect of any variation from them. No representation is made that the Goods or Services will correspond to such other drawings, description, materials, samples or advertising and they will not form part of the Contract.

7 Proofs

Any correction on or after the original proof or Deliverable has been submitted to the Customer (including alterations) will incur additional cost, for which the Customer will be liable. Where proofs of work or Deliverables are submitted to the Customer for approval, and where such proofs or Deliverables have been submitted or acknowledged as accepted by the Customer, the Seller shall not be liable to the Customer for any delay or inability to provide the Goods or Services, or for any errors in or omissions from the Goods or Services, which result from an incomplete, incorrect or inaccurate proof or Deliverable not corrected by the Customer.

8 Electronic Files

- 8.1 The Customer shall maintain a copy of any original electronic file which is passed to the Seller. "Electronic file" shall mean any text, illustration or other matter supplied to the Seller in digitised form on disk, by electronic email, through the internet or via any other communication link.
- 8.2 The Seller shall not be responsible for verifying the accuracy of supplied input from an electronic file unless otherwise agreed in writing.
- 8.3 Without prejudice to the above condition 8.2, if an electronic file is not suitable for outputting on equipment normally adequate for such purposes without adjustment or other corrective action the Seller may make an extra charge for any resulting additional work involved or costs incurred. In such circumstances, the Seller will use reasonable care to produce the results agreed with Customer but shall not be responsible for (i) any fault, addition, error, omission or imperfection caused by or resulting from the unsuitability of any such electronic file or (ii) any delay occasioned by the additional work.

9 Machine Readable Codes

- 9.1 In the case of machine readable codes or symbols, the Seller shall print the same as specified or approved by the Customer in accordance with generally accepted standards and procedures.
- 9.2 The Customer shall be responsible for satisfying itself that the code or symbol will read correctly on the equipment likely to be used by those for whom the code or symbol is intended.
- 9.3 The Customer shall indemnify the Seller against all claims, costs, expenses, demands, losses, damages and fees (including legal and other professional fees) arising from any claim by any party resulting from the code or symbol not reading or not reading correctly for any reason, except to the extent that such claim arises from any failure of the Seller to print the code or symbol as specified or approved by the Customer in accordance with generally accepted standards and procedures or an error falling outside the tolerances generally accepted in the trade in relation to printing of the sort required for the Goods.

10 Delivery

- 10.1 Any dates quoted for delivery of the Goods or completion of the Services are approximate only and the Seller shall not be liable for any failure to deliver Goods or complete Services on a particular date or dates.

- 10.2 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the delivery of the Goods shall take place at the Customer's place of business, DAP (Incoterms 2020).
- 10.3 Where a single delivery is agreed in the Contract without specifying a date or by other agreement, the Customer shall take delivery of and accept the Goods or Services within 14 days of being notified by the Seller that the Goods or Services are ready for delivery or performance.
- 10.4 If no dates are specified for delivery or performance, delivery or performance will be within a reasonable amount of time.
- 10.5 Where deferred deliveries or performance are agreed, the Customer shall take delivery of and accept all deliveries or performance of the Goods or Services within 2 months of the specified first delivery or performance date or availability date. In the event of failure to take any delivery within the time period, that delivery shall be deemed to have occurred and the Customer shall be invoiced accordingly.
- 10.6 Where deferred deliveries or performance are agreed, each delivery made pursuant to the Contract shall be treated separately and any failure relating to one or more deliveries shall not entitle the Customer to treat the Contract as a whole as repudiated.
- 10.7 Where Goods are held at the Seller's premises beyond the period designated under these Conditions for taking delivery, the Goods will be stored at the Customer's risk and the Seller will charge the Customer for the costs of storage (including insurance).
- 10.8 Where the delivery of the Goods to the Customer is to take place using the Customer's own transport or by a carrier on behalf of the Customer, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered upon the transfer to the carrier named by the Customer or the Customer's transport, or (in the case of delivery ex-works) upon the Seller notifying the Customer that the Goods are available for collection.
- 10.9 The liability of the Seller for non-delivery of Goods shall be limited to replacing the Goods within a reasonable time of written notification of non-delivery by the Customer or issuing a credit note against any invoice issued in respect of the relevant Goods. The liability of the Seller for non-performance of Services shall be limited to performing the Services within a reasonable time of written notification of non-performance by the Customer or issuing a credit note against any invoice issued in respect of the relevant Services.

11 Quantity Variations

The Customer shall not be entitled to object to or reject the Goods or any of them by reason of the Seller delivering a surplus or shortfall of +/-10% to the quantity of Goods set out in the Order, and the Seller reserves the right to deliver and invoice such quantities of Goods and the Customer shall pay for them accordingly.

12 Acceptance of the Goods and Services

- 12.1 The Seller warrants that the Goods at the date of delivery:
- (a) conform to the Specification subject to standard industry tolerances; and
 - (b) are free of defects (in material and workmanship).

The Customer shall inspect the Goods and/or Services within ten (10) days after the Goods' arrival at the designated delivery destination or the performance of the Services at the place of performance. The Customer must accept any tender of the Goods or Services by Seller that are substantially in conformity with the Specification for the Goods or Services considering standard industry tolerances and the terms hereof, subject to the Customer's remedies set forth in these Conditions. The Customer will be deemed to have accepted tender of the Goods or Services if the Customer fails to so inspect, or fails to give the Seller written notice of rejection, within such ten (10) day period, which notice shall describe in reasonable detail the rejected Goods or Services and the non-conformities or defects upon which the Customer's rejection is based.

- 12.2 The Seller warrants that the Services will be carried out with reasonable skill and care and conform to the Specification, subject to standard industry tolerances.
- 12.3 The Seller's obligations for breach of the warranties given in condition 12.1 and 12.2 above shall be limited, at the Seller's option, to either (a) crediting the Customer with the price of such Goods and/or Services at the pro rata Contract rate (provided that, if the Seller so requests, the Customer shall return the Goods or part of such Goods which is/are non-conforming or defective to the Seller), or (b) replacing the Goods and/or Services or any part thereof, provided that in each case the Seller shall have no liability for any such breach unless:
- (a) written notification of non-conformance or defect is received by the Seller not more than 10 days after the date of delivery or performance, or in cases where the non-conformance or defect was not apparent on reasonable inspection, within a reasonable time after it has come to the attention of the Customer or ought reasonably have come to its attention;
 - (b) in the case of Goods, if such defect is caused in transit, written notification is received by the Seller within such time as will enable the Seller to comply with the time limit and procedure of carriers by whom the Goods were transported;
 - (c) the Goods have not been used or processed by the Customer;
 - (d) the Seller is given a reasonable opportunity after receiving the notice of examining such Goods or performance of such Services; and
 - (e) after examination, the Seller is satisfied that the Goods and/or Services are non-conforming or defective.
- 12.4 Without prejudice to condition 12.3, the Seller shall not be liable for a breach of any of the warranties in condition 12.1 or 12.2 if the non-conformity or defect arises due to:
- (a) the Customer having stored the Goods under unsuitable conditions;
 - (b) the Customer having transported or used the Goods or results of the Services or Deliverables in a way which would not be considered to be good trade practice or in a manner contrary to the Seller's instructions;
 - (c) fair wear and tear, wilful damage or negligence on the part of the Customer; or
 - (d) a defect caused by or arising from the Specification (or any part or parts of the Specification) originating from the Customer.

Provided that the Seller has complied with its obligation to replace or credit the Customer in respect of non-conforming or defective Goods or Services as set out in this condition 12, the Seller shall have no further liability to the Customer for a breach of any of the warranties in condition 12.1 or 12.2.

12.5 It is further expressly agreed and acknowledged that:

- (a) no testing or examination of the result of Services or any Deliverables will be carried out by the Seller unless such testing or examination is specifically agreed in writing in the Contract;
- (b) the Seller shall not be liable in any way whatsoever in the event that the result of any Services or Deliverables are used for any purpose for which they were not designed or intended;
- (c) at each appropriate point in the provision of Services, or upon completion of Services, where the Customer signs off its approval of the result of the Services or in respect of the Deliverables, the Seller shall not be responsible and shall have no liability whatsoever (save for liability which cannot be excluded or restricted under law) for subsequent issues or claims from the Customer that the result of the Services or the Deliverables were not in accordance with the Order or Specification, defective or deficient in any way or not suitable for use by the Customer;

- (d) the responsibility to confirm the suitability of the Service or any result thereof or the Deliverables to the intended final use by the Customer or a third party prior to commercial use remains with the Customer and the Seller shall not be liable for any loss, damage or claim arising from failure so to confirm;
- (e) no warranty is given that the Services (or any result thereof) or the Deliverables will comply with all or any relevant laws or regulations unless the Seller has specifically agreed to such compliance in writing in the Order or Specification;
- (f) no liability shall attach to the Seller to the extent that any matter arises from the negligence of the Customer or errors contained in or any omission of any information provided by or instructions given to the Seller by the Customer;
- (g) where any samples of packaging are constructed and provided, the Customer shall be responsible for ensuring that the final form meets all applicable laws, codes and regulations for the Customer's intended use in the relevant geographies for distribution and that they do not infringe the rights of any third party including intellectual property rights;
- (h) no liability shall attach to the Seller to the extent that (i) any information or text provided by the Customer to the Seller for inclusion in Goods, Services or Deliverables is not compliant with any applicable legal or regulatory requirements and/or (ii) any formatting, display, position or other configuration of information or text whether or not provided by the Customer to the Seller is not compliant with any applicable legal or regulatory requirements.

12.6 The Customer shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations relating to anti-bribery and anti-corruption.

12.7 Except as expressly set forth in these Conditions, all warranties, conditions and other terms implied by statute, common law or otherwise are, to the fullest extent permitted by law, excluded from the Contract.

13 Limitation of Liability

13.1 Nothing in these Conditions shall exclude or limit the liability of the Seller for death or personal injury caused by the Seller's negligence, for fraudulent misrepresentation, , for defective products under the Act No. 102/2001 Coll., on General Product Safety and on Amendments to Certain Acts, as amended, or for any liability which cannot be excluded or limited by law.

13.2 Subject to condition 13.1:

- (a) the Seller's (including the Seller's employees, agents and sub-contractors) total liability to the Customer in respect of all losses (including any financial loss incurred by the Customer due to product recall) arising under or in connection with the Contract, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, misrepresentation or otherwise, shall be limited to the price of the Goods or Services to which the Contract relates; and
- (b) the Seller shall in no event be liable for any loss of production, loss of profit, loss of bargain, loss of contract, loss of goodwill, or any indirect, special or consequential loss or damage, or costs or expenses incurred by the Customer in connection with the same, whether or not such loss or damage was foreseen, foreseeable, known or otherwise.

13.3 Subject to condition 13.1, and without prejudice to condition 13.2, where any part of the Goods or Services supplied by the Seller are not manufactured or processed or otherwise provided by the Seller, the Seller shall only be liable to the Customer in respect of non-conformity or defect of the Goods or Services to the extent that the Seller is able to recover any loss or damage from the relevant third party.

13.4 The Seller is authorised to demand any compensation for damage irrespective of whether this is covered by liquidated damages / interest on late payment or not.

14 Customer Property

- 14.1 The Customer's property supplied to the Seller whether by the Customer or by any other party on behalf of the Customer shall be held, used and transported (if necessary) at the Customer's risk.
- 14.2 The Customer shall ensure that any property supplied shall be supplied in a timely manner and in sufficient quantities to cover the risk of spoilage.
- 14.3 Unless instructions are received to the contrary, all such Customer property may be destroyed after a period of 12 months from the time they are last used.

15 Ownership of Origination Work and Materials

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, all work and materials including without limitation, sketches, drawings, tools, negatives, printing cylinders, plates, dies, forming tools, films and digital data remain the property of the Seller even if the Customer has directly or indirectly contributed to their creation or cost.

16 Materials Supplied by the Customer

Where any materials (which shall include equipment, machinery parts and artwork) are supplied by the Customer or by a third party supplier directly on behalf of the Customer in connection with a Contract, the Seller shall not be liable for any non-conformity or defect arising from the quality of the materials or for delay caused by the failure of the Customer or the third party supplier to supply the materials in a timely manner. The Customer shall be responsible for any additional costs that are incurred by the Seller in the event that the materials so supplied are not suitable, defective or delayed.

If the Customer requests or directs the Seller to include any claims (whether express or implied) on or with the Goods or any Deliverables, including without limitation, claims about the Customer or products which are contained within the Goods or Deliverables or in which the Goods or Deliverables have been incorporated, including, among others, claims related to (i) the product's sustainability or recyclability, or the product's or the Customer's environmental impact, (ii) the product's health benefits or safety, (iii) the product's nutritional information, ingredients or composition, or (iv) the usage of the product or its performance, features, price or effectiveness (collectively, "Product Claims"), the Customer agrees to assume full responsibility for such Product Claims and to indemnify the Seller against all claims, costs, expenses, demands, losses, damages and fees (including legal and other professional fees) arising from any claim by any party with regard to such Product Claims or the products with respect to which such Product Claims relate.

17 Intellectual Property Rights

- 17.1 Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Seller and the Customer, all rights including any intellectual property rights (including patents, registered and unregistered designs, trade marks and service marks (registered or not), know-how, trade secrets and copyright and any applications in respect thereof) ("Intellectual Property Rights") in any materials supplied by the Customer and in any Deliverables shall remain with the Customer and all rights, including Intellectual Property Rights, prepared, developed or created by the Seller in connection with the Contract and in the nature of manufacturing know-how, printing processes, methodologies, techniques or finishing effects in the Deliverables shall be and remain vested in the Seller. Therefore, to the extent required, the Customer hereby agrees, without payment, to execute all documents and take such other actions as may be necessary to ensure that such Intellectual Property Rights are registered and/or fully vested or remain vested in the Seller. For the avoidance of doubt, (a) any Intellectual Property Rights owned by or in use by the Seller prior to the applicable commencement date of the Contract; or (b) developed by the Seller outside of the scope of a Contract or any Order and used in the provision of the Services or incorporated in the result of the Services or Deliverables or Goods; or (c) prepared, developed or created by the Seller in connection with the supply of Goods or Services (the "Seller Materials") shall be and remain vested in the Seller. The Seller hereby grants to the Customer a perpetual, non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty free licence to use the Seller Materials to the extent necessary for the Customer to have full use and enjoyment of the result of the Services and the Deliverables or the Goods provided by the Seller. The Seller hereby assigns to the Customer all of its rights, title and interests, including any Intellectual Property Rights, in and to the Deliverables except for any such rights as aforesaid.

- 17.2 The Seller shall not be responsible for any fault, error, illegality or any infringements of third party Intellectual Property Rights which are contained in the Specification (including artwork) or any draft thereof, or in any materials, order, instructions or other data or information supplied by the Customer, including where any such fault, error, illegality or infringement arises from the Seller's use of or reliance upon such Specification, materials, order, instructions, data or information in connection with the manufacture, use or resale of the Goods or results of the Services or Deliverables. The Customer shall indemnify and keep indemnified the Seller from and against any and all claims, costs, expenses, demands, losses, damages and fees (including reasonable legal and other professional fees) arising from any claims or complaints made against the Seller by a third party with regard to such matters, including infringement of a third party's Intellectual Property Rights where the fault, error, illegality or infringement in question arises (directly or indirectly) from the Seller manufacturing, producing or reproducing the Goods or performing the Services to the Customer's order, instructions and/or Specification, or using or reselling such Goods or Services, or using materials supplied by the Customer in connection therewith.

18 Title and Risk

- 18.1 Title to the Goods and/or Deliverables shall remain with the Seller, and shall not pass to the Customer unless and until payment of the price of the Goods or Services, and all other sums due at that time from the Customer to the Seller (whether under the Contract to which the Goods or Services relate or otherwise), is received in full by the Seller.
- 18.2 Until the Customer has obtained title to the Goods or Deliverables, the Customer:
- (a) grants the Seller an irrevocable licence at any time to enter into any premises where the Goods or Deliverables are or may be stored in order to inspect them, or where the Customer's right to possession has terminated, to recover them;
 - (b) shall keep the Goods and/or Deliverables properly stored and protected, separately from all other goods of the Customer or any third party, and in such manner that the Goods and/or Deliverables are clearly identifiable as the property of the Seller; and
 - (c) shall maintain the Goods in satisfactory condition and keep them insured on the Seller's behalf for their full price against all risks to the reasonable satisfaction of the Seller.
- 18.3 Risk in the Goods and/or Deliverables shall pass on delivery to the Customer's premises or when the Goods and/or Deliverables are transferred to or collected by the Customer or the Customer's carrier (if applicable).

19 Assignment and sub-contracting

- 19.1 The Seller may at any time assign, transfer, charge, delegate, subcontract or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights or obligations under the Contract without the consent of the Customer.
- 19.2 The Customer may not assign, transfer, charge, delegate, subcontract or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights or obligations under the Contract without the prior written consent of the Seller. The Customer may not assign its claims against the Seller as arising from the Contract to a third party without the prior written consent of the Seller. The Customer is further not authorised to unilaterally offset any of its claims against the Seller against any of its obligations towards the Seller as arising from the Contract.

- 19.3 These Conditions, and the rights, interests, duties and obligations hereunder, shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

20 Force Majeure

The Seller reserves the right to postpone the date of delivery or performance or to cancel the Contract or reduce the volume of the Goods to be delivered or Services provided to the Customer (without liability to the Customer) or otherwise suspend its obligations under the Contract without liability to the Seller or the Customer if it is prevented from or delayed in the performance of the Contract by any of the following: (a) strikes, work stoppages, or other labour troubles, difficulties, disruptions or disturbances of any kind; (b) fires, floods, earthquakes, inclement weather, explosions, or other natural or man-made disasters or acts of God; (c) riots, war, sabotage, foreign or domestic terrorism (including cyber-terrorism or cyber-attacks), act of a public enemy, national emergency, epidemic, pandemic, disease outbreak, quarantine or shelter in place restrictions, or other disturbances of the peace; (d) breakdowns, shutdown, destruction, or failure of any kind of Seller's equipment or facilities necessary for performance hereunder arising from any cause whatsoever, or accidents at Seller's facilities; (e) transportation embargoes or delays, reductions, shortages, curtailment, disruption or cessation of supplies, materials, equipment, facilities, power, utilities, labour, transportation, fuel or other factors of production or performance; (f) increases in the price of supplies, materials (including, but not limited to, the price of raw materials), equipment, facilities, power, utilities, labour, transportation, fuel or other factors of production or performance or the inability to obtain such items at a reasonable commercial price; (g) actions, legislation, regulations, rules or orders of any government or governmental agency (including executive orders and proclamations), or Seller's voluntary or involuntary participation in any plan of general public interest, any of which adversely affect manufacture, production, performance, shipment and/or deliveries hereunder; (h) delays of other suppliers or subcontractors; (i) any other act, omission, circumstance or cause beyond the reasonable control of Seller, whether or not similar to the causes or occurrences enumerated above; or (j) the escalation or worsening of any of the foregoing. In the event of the occurrence of any of the above affecting Seller's ability to perform, Seller shall have the right to negotiate new pricing for the Goods or Services. Such postponement, cancellation, reduction or suspension shall not constitute a breach of the Contract and the time for performance shall be extended by a period equivalent to that during which performance is so prevented, provided that in the event that the force majeure continues for a continuous period of 3 months, the Seller shall be entitled to give notice in writing to Customer to terminate the Contract without further liability.

21 Termination

- 21.1 All payments payable to the Seller under the Contract shall become immediately due upon termination of the Contract notwithstanding any other provision in the Contract.
- 21.2 The Seller may (without prejudice to its other rights or remedies accrued at that date) suspend further performance of its obligations under the Contract or under any other contract between the Seller and the Customer, including without limitation the delivery of Goods or performance of Services or Deliverables, or terminate the Contract, without liability to the Customer if:
- (a) the Customer fails to pay any monies due under the Contract by the due date for payment;
 - (b) the Customer breaches any condition;
 - (c) (being a business) the Customer ceases, or threatens to cease, to carry on all or substantially all of its business;
 - (d) the Customer enters into any composition or arrangement with or for the benefit of its creditors or has a receiver of its assets or material part thereof appointed or enters into liquidation (either voluntary or compulsory) or becomes generally unable to pay its debts when they become due or

- is deemed unable to pay its debts within the meaning of Section 3 of the Act No. 182/2006 Coll., on bankruptcy and methods of its resolution (Insolvency Act), as amended;
- (e) (being an individual) the Customer is the subject of a bankruptcy petition or order, or dies, or, by reason of illness or incapacity (whether mental or physical), is incapable of managing his or her own affairs or becomes a patient under any mental health legislation; or
 - (f) the Seller reasonably believes that any of the events above are about to occur in relation to the Customer.
- 21.3 Notwithstanding any provision of the Contract to the contrary, the provisions of conditions 12, 13, 14, 15, 17, 18 and 22, and any other conditions which expressly or impliedly survive expiry or termination of the Contract for any reason whatsoever, shall continue in full force and effect after expiry or termination.
- 22 General
- 22.1 A Contract once formed cannot be amended or cancelled except by mutual agreement of the parties in writing. Subject to any termination rights contained in a Contract or available under law, all Orders once placed and accepted by the Seller are binding on the Customer and unless the Seller agrees otherwise, the Customer shall be liable for and shall pay the full price of the Order to the Seller.
- 22.2 Waiver of any or all of the terms of a Contract shall not prejudice or affect the Seller's rights and remedies in respect of any subsequent breach, non-performance or non-observance by the Customer of any Contract. Delay in exercising or non-exercise of any right under a Contract is not a waiver of that or any other right, and partial exercise of any right under a Contract shall not preclude any further or other exercise of that right or any other right under the Contract.
- 22.3 If any one or more of these Conditions is held to be or becomes illegal, invalid, void or otherwise unenforceable for any reason under any applicable law:
- (a) the legality, validity and/or the enforceability of the remaining provisions of the Contract shall not be affected; and
 - (b) whilst the parties consider the provisions contained in these Conditions reasonable, the parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify any such provision(s) so that to the greatest extent possible they achieve the same effect as would have been achieved by the invalid or unenforceable provision(s).
- 22.4 A person who is not a party to the Contract shall not have any rights to enforce any of the Conditions by virtue of the Contract or otherwise .
- 22.5 The Contract incorporating these Conditions sets out the entire understanding between the Seller and the Customer with respect to the sale and purchase of the Goods and/or provision of Services and supersedes, extinguishes and replaces all prior documentation, discussions, agreements and arrangements existing between the parties regarding the same subject matter.
- 22.6 Each party acknowledges to the other that it has not been induced to enter into the Contract by nor has it relied upon any representation, promise, assurance, warranty or undertaking (whether in writing or not) by or on behalf of the other party or any other person, save for those contained in the Contract. Accordingly, each of the parties acknowledges and agrees that the only remedy available to it in respect of the subject matter of the Contract shall be for breach of contract under the terms of the Contract and it shall have no right of action against any other party in respect of any such representation, promise, assurance, warranty or undertaking.
- 22.7 Each of the Seller and the Customer shall use any information of a confidential or sensitive nature of the other party (including the terms or existence of the Contract) whether disclosed before, on or after the date of a Contract only for the proper performance of its duties under the Contract and shall keep confidential and shall not, without the consent of the other, disclose such information to any third party except that disclosure shall be allowed in confidence to such of the parties' employees, officers, agents, subcontractors and advisers who need to know the confidential information for the proper performance of their duties. This obligation shall not apply to any information that (a) the receiving party becomes required to disclose under law or rules of any governmental or regulatory body, to the extent of the required disclosure, (b) the receiving party can prove was known to it before receipt; (c) is in or enters the public domain through no wrongful default by or on behalf of the receiving party with effect from the date when that information enters the public domain; (d) was received from a third party without obligations of confidence owed directly or indirectly to the disclosing party.

22.8 Each party undertakes to comply with all applicable data protection legislation, including the EU General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR") 2016/679 as well as any applicable national implementing and supplementing laws and any amending or replacement legislation of any of the above from time to time, and to ensure compliance with such legislation by its personnel, agents, representatives and subcontractors. This condition is in addition to and does not relieve, remove or replace either party's obligations, rights or liabilities under such legislation. Each party shall comply with the obligations of a "controller" under the GDPR in relation to any personal data processed for its own purposes.

To the extent that a party is a processor of personal data processed on behalf of the other party as controller, the processor shall comply with the obligations of a "processor" under the GDPR and it (i) may process such data only in accordance with the controller's documented instructions; (ii) will take all appropriate technical and organisational measures to safeguard such data as required under Article 32 of GDPR; (iii) will ensure that persons authorised to process such data have committed themselves to confidentiality or are under an appropriate statutory obligation of confidentiality; (iv) will reasonably assist the controller in ensuring its compliance with its obligations under Articles 32 to 36 of GDPR; (v) will reasonably assist the controller by appropriate technical and organisational measures, insofar as this is possible, in responding to requests by data subjects; (vi) will at the choice of the controller, delete or return all such data to the controller after the end of the provision of services or processing; (vii) will make available to the controller all information reasonably necessary to demonstrate compliance with this condition and allow for and contribute to audits, including inspections, conducted on reasonable grounds by the controller or its auditor; and (viii) will notify the controller within 24 hours of becoming aware of any "personal data breach" as defined under the GDPR. The controller will ensure that each instruction is lawful and the processor shall immediately inform the controller if, in its opinion, an instruction is unlawful. The processor will not sub-contract, outsource, assign, novate or otherwise transfer its obligations under this condition to any party ("Subprocessor") nor transfer the personal data outside the European Economic Area, UK or Switzerland without the controller's prior written consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld. Where such consent is given by the controller, the processor shall enter into a contract with the Subprocessor on terms at least as protective of the controller as this condition 22.8 which will include the processor terms in Article 28 of GDPR ("Subprocessor Terms"), and the processor shall comply with Chapter V of GDPR and the controller's instructions in relation to international data transfers. The processor will carry out each obligation under this condition 22.8 at its own expense. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, any processing under the Contract would be as follows:

Description	Details
Subject matter of processing	Processing of data required for the purposes of the purchase of Goods and/or provision of Services pursuant to the Contract.
Duration of the processing	Contract duration.
Nature and purposes of the processing	The purchase of Goods and/or provision of Services as provided in the Contract and the performance of the Seller's obligations under these Conditions.
The type of personal data	The personal data inputted for the purpose of performing obligations and/or using the Services, including names, addresses, email addresses and telephone numbers.

- 22.9 All notices shall be made in writing and delivered by hand or sent by registered mail) to the registered office of the other party or sent by email to such email address as may be notified to the other party for such purpose from time to time. Notices shall be deemed to have been received if sent by registered mail, 3 days after posting, if delivered by hand, on the day of delivery, if sent by email (and provided that a copy is also sent by post or airmail) on a working day prior to 4.00pm, at the time of transmission and otherwise on the next working day.
- 22.10 Where the destination of the Goods, Services or Deliverables is outside the Czech Republic, the Customer shall be responsible for (i) complying with any applicable laws, legislation or regulations governing the use, sale or exportation or importation of the Goods or Deliverables or provision of Services, (ii) the payment of applicable levies, taxes or duties and (iii) the payment of any additional costs arising in relation to the transportation (including any customs clearance) and storage of such Goods or Deliverables including without limitation health and safety and environmental legislation. If the Goods are delivered abroad and the shipping of Goods outside the territory of the Czech Republic is ensured by the Customer, or its contractual carrier, the Customer is obliged to present to the Seller written confirmation of the fact that the delivery of the Goods actually left the territory of the Czech Republic, and to do so not later than 30 days following the date of dispatch of the Goods from the Seller. Written confirmation is understood to be a CMR shipping note, a delivery note with confirmation of the state of the recipient or the written solemn declaration of the Customer or of another authorised person (the carrier) that the Goods were physically transported outside the territory of the Czech Republic. Should the Customer fail to carry out this obligation, the Customer undertakes to pay the Seller liquidated damages equalling the amount of value added tax according to the relevant legal regulations on the total price of the concerned delivery of Goods according to the Contract which was delivered outside the territory of the Czech Republic. In case of additional assessment of value added tax on the Seller by the competent tax administrator, the Customer is, in addition to the liquidated damages specified in the preceding sentence, obliged to pay the Seller all interest and penalties additionally assessed on the Seller by the tax administrator.
- 22.11 The Contract and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it (including any non-contractual claims or disputes) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Czech Republic.
- 22.12 In relation to any legal action or proceedings (a) arising out of or in connection with the Contract or its implementation or effect or (b) relating to any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Contract, each of the parties irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the relevant Czech court, where the Seller has its seat, and waives any objection to proceedings in such courts on the grounds of venue or on the grounds that proceedings have been brought in an inappropriate forum. The application of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods is explicitly excluded.
- 22.13 To the fullest extent allowed under applicable law, the rights and remedies contained herein shall be the parties' only rights and remedies available to the parties hereunder.
- 22.14 The Customer shall not engage in any bribery, kickbacks, collusive bidding, price fixing, or other unfair trade practices. The Customer (and its partners, employees, representatives and agents) shall comply with the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act ("FCPA") and the applicable anti-bribery and anticorruption laws of any country outside the United States applicable with respect to the Goods and Services and the Customer's performance hereunder or under any Contract ("Corrupt Practices Laws"). If the Customer learns of or has reason to know of any payment, offer or agreement relating to the Goods and/or Services that is contemplated or that has occurred and that represents or could represent a violation of the FCPA or Corrupt Practices Laws, the Customer shall immediately advise the Seller's General Counsel, in writing, at the WestRock Company head offices in Atlanta, Georgia. The Seller shall be permitted to take reasonable steps to avoid, mitigate or investigate such an actual or potential violation of the FCPA or Corrupt Practices Laws, which may include reviewing the Customer's books and records and auditing for these purposes at any time upon reasonable notice. The Seller may disclose these Conditions and any Contract and any information that it obtains hereunder to any government agency, regulatory authority or other persons or entities that the Seller has determined, in its discretion, have a need for such information. In addition to the foregoing, while the Goods and Services are being provided, the Customer must promptly notify the Seller in writing upon learning or forming a reasonable belief that the Customer, directly or through any agent or service provider, paid any bribe that is punishable under the FCPA (or would be if the Customer was subject to that statute) or Corrupt Practices Laws. The preceding sentence applies to the Customer's conduct irrespective of whether the bribe in question relates to or benefits the Goods and Services or the Seller; however, the provision of such advice shall not represent a breach hereunder unless the actual or suspected bribe relates to the Goods and Services contemplated hereunder. The Customer shall ensure that any representatives and agents acting on behalf of the Customer with respect to the Goods and Services or the Customer's performance hereunder shall agree in writing to the terms of this condition 22.14. Neither the Customer nor any representative or agent of the Customer may interact with any government agency on behalf of the Seller without the prior written approval of the Seller.

- 22.15 The Contract is not intended to create, nor should it be construed as creating, an agency, joint venture, partnership or similar relationship between the parties. Each party will act solely as an independent contractor and neither party will have the right to act for or bind the other party in any way or to represent that the other party is in any way responsible for any acts or omissions of such party. It is understood and agreed that each party shall be solely responsible for the wages and benefits of its employees.
- 22.16 The Customer acknowledges that the Seller is entitled, with respect to the effort to improve the quality and range of Goods/Services provided, or changes and developments in legislation and the Seller's business policies, to unilaterally modify these Conditions, unless otherwise agreed with the Customer, with effect from the first day of calendar month following the delivery of the new wording of these Conditions to the Customer.
- 22.17 With respect to the fulfilment of the Contract, the parties undertake as follows:
- (a) to comply with any and all laws and regulations applicable to the Customer or Seller with respect to the Contract and any action taken pursuant to either prohibiting or otherwise restricting trade with any individual, entity or jurisdiction, or imposing licensing requirements on the same, including without limitation financial sanctions, trade embargoes and export controls such as those imposed by the US Treasury Department Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC), the US Department of State, the US Commerce Department, the European Commission or any member state of the European Union, UK HM Treasury Office of Financial Sanctions Implementation (OFSI) (hereinafter collectively the "Sanctions and Export Control Laws");
 - (b) to not take any action, or make any omission, that could cause any party to be in breach of, or otherwise be exposed to any restriction or penalty pursuant to, or suffer any adverse consequences of any kind arising directly or indirectly from, any Sanctions and Export Control Laws, including without limitation making any Goods/Service or any item incorporating the Goods available for the direct or indirect benefit of a person subject to financial sanctions, such as those named on the OFAC list of Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons, the EU Consolidated List of Financial Sanctions Targets or any similar list maintained by any EU member state, or any party owned or controlled by such a person or the OFSI (together “Sanctions Targets”).

- 22.18 The Seller shall have the right to suspend performance of its obligations under the Contract and the right to terminate the Contract, with immediate effect and without liability, if:
- (a) in its reasonable judgment, circumstances exist that could result in the non-fulfilment of the undertaking in condition 22.17;
 - (b) the Customer becomes a Sanctions Target;
 - (c) any bank refuses to receive or otherwise process any payment under the Contract.
- 22.19 The Customer shall reimburse Seller for any claims, damages, losses, costs and expenses (including attorney’s fees) suffered or incurred by Seller resulting from (i) the Customer’s breach of either of the undertakings in condition 22.17; or (ii) Seller’s suspension of its obligations under, or termination of, the Contract pursuant to condition 22.18.
- 22.20 These Conditions have been prepared in the English language. If any translation of these Conditions conflicts with this English version, this English version will prevail.
